

J.J. College of Arts & Science (Autonomous), Pudukkottai

Department of English

Course Outcomes

B.A. English – UAEG

Course Name – Prose I		Course Code – U1R1EGCC1
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	develop a taste for extra-reading.
CO 2	develop their library and reference skills.
CO 3	become aware of the stylistic manner of language.
CO 4	acquire the ability to understand the evolution of English Prose and its various styles.
CO 5	acquire the skill to debate on and digest ideas.

Course Name - Fiction I		Course Code – U1R1EGCC2
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	develop their reading and comprehension skills.
CO 2	acquire the ability to analyze character portrayal and plot construction.
CO 3	become familiar with a broad spectrum of narratological devices like point of view and authorial comment.
CO 4	develop a taste for extra reading.
CO 5	become aware of the multi nature of the novel and its socio psychological origin and impact.
Course Name - Social History of England – I		Course Code – U1R1EGAC1
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to

CO 1	develop an interest in the evolution of English society, its customs and manners.
CO 2	acquire the ability to see literary works in their socio-political context.
CO 3	get understood different Religious Sects of the European Continent.
CO 4	acquire the ability correlate political ideology and ideational content of literary works.
CO 5	assess the political affiliations of various writers and their social background.
Course Name - Poetry I
Course Code – U2R1EGCC3
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	develop the ability to appreciate poetic language.
CO 2	enthusiasm to take up reading of poetry in English and the mother tongue.
CO 3	develop the ability to compare and contrast various poets and different ages.
CO 4	sensitize to the patterns of rhyme, figure of speech, imagery and symbolism.
CO 5	analyse structure and texture of poems identifying features of diction, syntax, meaning and tone.

Course Name - Literary Forms		Course Code - U2R1EGAC2
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	acquire the ability to identify literary genres.
CO 2	develop a sensitivity to variations in the use of language.
CO 3	get the foundation to evolve into critical readers.
CO 4	trace the evolution of genres.
CO 5	assess literary works in relation to matters of form and style.
Course Name - History of English Literature – I		Course Code - U2R1EGAC3
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	develop the historical perspective on literary trends and their respective exemplars.
CO 2	acquire the ability to sensitize to the evolution of genres.
CO 3	compare writers and periods.
CO 4	identify the predominance of genres in particular age.
CO 5	relate literary trends to the respective world view of particular periods.
Course Name - Poetry II		Course Code - U3R1EGCC4
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	get understood the variety and complexity of modern poetry.
CO 2	develop a taste for further reading.
CO 3	acquire library, reference and browsing skills.
CO 4	compare and contrast various poets and different ages.
CO 5	see the various trends in Modern English poetry.

Course Name - Drama I		Course Code - U3R1EGCC5
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	develop a historical perspective on English drama and its varied manifestations.
CO 2	acquire the ability to assess the chemistry between plot, character, theme and world view.
CO 3	see the uniqueness of dramatic language in contrast to prose and poetry.
CO 4	perceive the evolution of drama during the eras specified.
CO 5	perceive and evaluate the different elements of drama.
Course Name - Prose II		Course Code - U3R1EGCC6
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	improve their reading efficiency.
CO 2	interpret difficult passages.
CO 3	reflect on issues of human concern.
CO 4	discriminate different styles of writing.
CO 5	appreciate the thematic and attitudinal variety of modern English prose.
Course Name - Social History of England II		Course Code - U3R1EGAC4
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	relate literature and society.
CO 2	interpret texts in the light of contemporary socio-political events.
CO 3	understand the process of socio-political evolution.
CO 4	account for the prominence of genres in particular ages.
CO 5	perceive the influence of international trends on English literature.

Course Name - Drama II		Course Code - U4R1EGCC7
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	acquire the ability to read and understand different types of modern plays.
CO 2	imbibe a basic knowledge of various types of theatre. (Angry, Absurd, Existentialist, etc.)
CO 3	assess and comment on the relationship between the various elements of drama.
CO 4	perceive the changes that have come over the genre in modern days
CO 5	analyse dramatic techniques.
Course Name - History Of English Literature- II		Course Code - U4R1EGAC5
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	acquire a historical perspective on writers and genres.
CO 2	acquire a basic knowledge of the prominent authors, their works, themes and techniques.
CO 3	understand the relation between literary trends and split up age.
CO 4	trace the progress of various movements.
CO 5	perceive the impact of European and Eastern thought on English Literature.
Course Name - Grammar and Usage		Course Code - U4R1EGAC6
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	acquire a basic knowledge of major grammatical concepts and categories.
CO 2	frame correct sentences and detect errors in usage.
CO 3	perceive the evolution of grammatical concepts.
CO 4	take up linguistic studies in areas like structural linguistics and TG grammar.
CO 5	explain grammatical concepts and categories to peer audience.
Course Name - Journalism		Course Code - U4R1EGSBE1

Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	acquire the ability to identify propaganda devices.
CO 2	differentiate among news items.
CO 3	differentiate news articles.
CO 4	acquire knowledge of different fields of journalism and their protocols and ethics.
CO 5	compose news items and analytical articles.
Course Name - Shakespeare
Course Code - U5R1EGCC8
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	acquire the ability to read and understand Shakespeare's plays.
CO 2	get trained to respond to drama texts perceiving aspects like dramatic irony, character, contrasts, etc.
CO 3	see the essential simplicity of Shakespeare's language.
CO 4	realise Shakespeare's Omni humanity and negative capability perceiving the infinite variety and depth of the characters.
CO 5	see Shakespeare's mastery of different types of language styles.
Course Name - Indian Writing in English
Course Code - U5R1EGCC9
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	develop a taste for Indian Literature in English.
CO 2	become alive to stylistic varieties among writers.
CO 3	undertake extra reading of the works of various authors prescribed or otherwise.
CO 4	become aware of the basic Indianness of Indian English.
CO 5	sensitize to the international ambiance of Indian Literature in English.
Course Name - American Literature
Course Code - U5R1EGCC10
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	see the link between society and literature in relation to America.
CO 2	get enthused to take up extra reading.

CO 3	see the generic richness of American literary writing.
CO 4	sensitize to the historical evolution of America as a nation and its multicultural ambience.
CO 5	sensitize to the multiple voices in American Literature through a study of representative prose, poetry, drama and fiction.
Course Name - Fiction - II
Course Code - U5R1EGCC11
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	get acquainted with various trends in modern Fiction.
CO 2	develop an interest in reading and analyzing fictional works especially novels.
CO 3	realize the multi talent nature of the modern novel in English.
CO 4	see the technical complexity of the modern novel in English.
CO 5	develop interest in reading novels of great authors.
Course Name - Translation-Theory and Practice
Course Code - U5R1EGMBE1
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	become aware of problems in translating various types of texts.
CO 2	develop an interest in comparative linguistics and grammar.
CO 3	acquire the ability to compare different texts.
CO 4	get enthused to discuss multiple translations and attempt original translations.
CO 5	assess different translations of the same text.
Course Name - Front Office Management – I
Course Code - U5R1EGIDC1
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	acquire the skills needed for Front Office Operations.
CO 2	become in a position to function as a Front Office executives.
CO 3	understand reservation and guest management procedures.
CO 4	become skilled in coordinating with the other sections of hotel administrations.
CO 5	maintain constructive relationship with regular guests and related sectors.

Course Name - Reporting and Editing		Course Code - U5R1EGSBE2
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	become familiar with the formalities and style of various reporting and editing procedures.
CO 2	become good sub editors with training.
CO 3	acquire the expertise for summarizing and expansion.
CO 4	develop the requisite skills for composing leads, blurbs and feature articles.
CO 5	become familiar with the legal aspects of Journalism.
Course Name - Commonwealth Literature		Course Code - U6R1EGCC12
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	become aware of the trends in colonial and postcolonial literature.
CO 2	get interested in cultural studies.
CO 3	realize the fusion of native and European literary traditions in Commonwealth Literature.
CO 4	get sensitized to socio-economic and political issues that inevitably impinge on literature.
CO 5	have a general idea of the issues dealt with in Commonwealth Literature.
Course Name - Indian And European Classics in Translation		Course Code - U6R1EGCC13
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	acquire the ability to assess translations.
CO 2	develop an interest in cultural studies and comparative literature.
CO 3	identify universal, regional and local issues treated in various texts and their implications to human life.
CO 4	understand original translations.
CO 5	realise the limits of translatability.
Course Name - English Language Teaching		Course Code - U6R1EGCC14
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	become aware of the need for a holistic approach to language teaching.

CO 2	develop skills in materials production.
CO 3	write lesson plans and implement them.
CO 4	develop the skill to identify, classify, explain and remediate errors.
CO 5	construct exercises for practice and items for testing.
Course Name - English For Competitive Examinations
Course Code - U6R1EGMBE2
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	become equipped with the skills to prepare for and face various types of Competitive Examinations.
CO 2	sharpen their language skills to tackle various types of discourse.
CO 3	adapt answers to the required length, range and point of view.
CO 4	acquire presentation skills .
CO 5	help others prepare for similar examinations.
Course Name - Phonetics and Spoken Language
Course Code - U6R1EGMBE3
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	pronounce the sounds of English with reasonable acceptability.
CO 2	take down speeches in the Phonetic Alphabet.
CO 3	speak English with the right stress and intonation.
CO 4	transcribe words and sentences in the phonetic alphabet.
CO 5	prepare minimal pairs, tongue-twisters, pneumonic rhymes and ICT Exercises learning/ teaching right pronunciation.
Course Name - Public Relations
Course Code - U6R1EGSBE3
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	develop an interest in Public Relations as a discipline.
CO 2	become fit for Public Relations jobs. (after practical training in the required skills)
CO 3	acquire various dimensions of Public Relations and the need to plan the Public Relations process.
CO 4	understand the psychological linguistic concepts that underlie good P.R

CO 5	Take up P.R as a career.
Course Name - Mass Communication and New Media
Course Code - U6R1EGIDC2
Upon Completion of the course students would be able to
CO 1	ready to take up Public Relations Jobs.
CO 2	analyze various socio-political issues including media-issues.
CO 3	gain a historical perspective on media expansion roles and responsibilities.
CO 4	sensitize to emergent issues in the information age.
CO 5	understand the basic concepts, theories and models of Mass communication